- (a) Script, shoot and edit and voice a TV news report of 80-100 seconds. (50 marks)
- (b) Script, edit and voice a radio news package of 2 – 2 ½ minutes. (50 marks)

You must also complete a TV and radio assignment sheet giving your reasons for choosing your stories and stating your sources for research. Any third party material must be identified.

(a) The TV news report must include:

- at least two interviewees
- a piece to camera – self shot

Script a studio link of up to 20 seconds for your item. You must submit your script in a word document with your final work.

(b) The radio news package must include:

- at least two interviews.

Script a presenter cue of up to 20 seconds. You must submit your script in a word document with your final work.

You may use material from any source, subject to copyright. Markers will look for evidence of journalistic rigour with legal and regulatory compliance.

Your coursework submission must be endorsed by a course tutor, trainer or editor as all your own work.

There is no time limit for producing the work, but you must submit your coursework for marking at least one month prior to the completion of your course for assessment. Your tutor will give you your deadline date.

Your coursework may be submitted electronically via YouTube/Dropbox etc, on DVD, CD or as a file on a USB flash drive.
